

Noise reduction.

Qzone has been assessed in a SGS facility to test noise reduction effectiveness of the booth with the door closed (test conducted: GB/T 18699.1-2002).

This assessment found that the booth's weighted sound pressure isolation level is 21 - that's the equivalent of an alarm clock being reduced to a normal conversation, or a quiet office to a library.

